PHYSICAL DEMANDS

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

In accordance with the U.S. Department of Labor and Physical Demands Strength Rating, this is considered Sedentary Work – Exerting up to 10 pounds of force occasionally (Occasionally: activity or condition exists up to 1/3 of the time) and/or a negligible amount of force frequently (Frequently: activity or condition exists from 1/3 to 2/3 of the time) to lift, carry, push, pull, or otherwise move objects, including the human body. Sedentary work involves sitting most of the time but may involve walking or standing for brief periods of time. Jobs are sedentary if walking and standing are required only occasionally, and all other sedentary criteria are met.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

The working environment involves exposure to conditions generally found in an office setting. The employee may move, lift, and/or retrieve items of standard office use, such as paper by the ream or box, file record storage boxes and office equipment.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The employee may be required to work occasional evening and/or weekend hours in addition to a regular 40-hour work week.

The employee is required to comply with the employer's Drugfree Workplace Policy.

Selection will be based upon ability to meet job qualifications specified in the job description. This will be determined from information received through the job application, resume, interview, and references, and may include job-related testing. The duties listed above are intended only as illustrations of the various types of work that may be performed. The omission of specific statements of duties does not exclude them from the position if the work is similar, related or a logical assignment to the position.

The job description does not constitute an employment agreement between the employer and employee and is subject to change by the employer as the needs of the employer and requirements of the job change.

PARTA has established the goal of 100 percent drug and alcohol-free workplace. Applicants will be required to undergo pre-employment drug testing and may be subject to further urine and alcohol testing throughout their period of employment.

“PARTA does not discriminate in provision of services or employment because of handicap/disability, race, color, creed, national origin, sex or age.”
